London's Smoke Nuisance.

Half of London's smoke nuisance is caused by the coal fires in private dwellings, the owners of which are not liable for prosecution. It is expected that a good deal of missionary work will have to be done among householders before the smoke evil can be lessened appreciably.

THE YANKEE GIRL

To Open Season at the Garrick Friday Night, October 4

"Julie Ring in 'The Yankee Girl'" will be the attraction at the opening of the Garrick Theatre Friday night Oct. 4. The piece is a musical comedy, with book and lyrics by George V. Hobart and music by Solvio Hein and has been acclaimed a decided success in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago. The scenes are laid in an imaginary Southern republic called Brilliantia and offer unlimited opportunity for picturesqueness in the settings. The story is interesting with exceedingly comic complications and deals with the experience of a jolly American girl who accompanies her father on a business trip to South America. The music is tuneful, there are lilting airs, a big waltz number that has a delightful swing, a march and the rollicking songs that are sung by Miss Ring. Two of her best songs are "Top of the Morning" and "Louisiana Elizabeth." Miss Ring is supported by a big singing company. Charles J. Winninger is the principal comedian and he has a German character part that allows him to use a tongue twisting dialect that is said to be extremely funny. John Burkell, Robert B. Thurston, Madge Lawrence, Marie Hasiman and others have splendid opportunity to display their talents. A chorus of youthful and pretty girls that possess vocal culture are employed in order to bring out the full strength of the score. The play is lavishly staged. The scenic effects and costumes are typical of a "Ring" production. The company numbers 40 people and two special cars are required to transport the troop and the scenery.

Prices—Entire first floor $2.00. Balcony, $1.50—$1.00. Gallery, 50c.
